(P 243-27-2

Letter No. ROC. 802 dated 11-4-1928, from the Registrar, Chief Court, stating that some of the Munsiffs who are law graduates of the Bombay University, have not passed the Mysore Local Service-Revenue and Registration Tests, which they are required to pass under G.O.No.J. 1919-20/Cts. 185-08-2 dated 8-1-1909 and recommending that as these subjects are understood to be included in the syllabus of studies for the LL.B. Degree Examination since the year 1908 such of the Munsiffs as have passed the LL.B Examination since that year may be exempted from passing the Mysore Local Service Revenue and the Registration examinations.

O r d e r, No. 6937

Dated, Bangalore the 17/5/28

For the reason stated above Govt. are pleased to exempt the Munsiffs who have passed the [redacted].B. Degree Examination of the Bombay University Examination since the year 1908 from passing the Registration test of the Mysore Local Service Examinations. As regards the Revenue Examination, however, Government consider that it is desirable that Munsiffs should pass the Mysore Local Service - Revenue Higher Examination and they direct that this qualification should be enforced without any exception.

As there is considerable difference between the Bombay Law in force [redacted] in Mysore

To

B. NAGAPPA, Esq., Bar-at-law.,
Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore, Law Department,
BANGALORE.

Sir,

I am directed to state that in view of the Government Order No. J. 1919-20 Cts. 185-08-1 dated the 8th January 1908 -- directing the strict enforcement of the rule requiring the passing of the Revenue and the Registration tests of the Mysore Local Service and Pleaders' Examinations, by Munsiffs before confirmation, information was obtained from the several officers whose allocation was recently ordered in the revised grades of Subordinate Judge and Munsiffs in Government Order No.2602-45/C.B.76-27 dated the 4th/5th October 192[illegible], to see whether all of them have passed the tests in question, and it is seen from the information so collected that some of the officers, who are law graduates of the Bombay University, have not passed the Revenue and Registration tests which, it was represented, have formed part of the curriculum of the LL.B., Examination of the Bombay University. The Registrar of the Bombay University has also stated, in reply to a communication from the Chief Court, that the subjects of Revenue and Registration have been included in the syllabus of studies for the LL.B., Degree Examination of the University since the year 1908.

2. Under these circumstances I am to request that Government may be pleased to exempt the officers that have passed the LL.B., Examination of the Bombay University since the year 1908, from passing the Revenue and Registration Examinations of the Mysore Local Service and Pleaders' Examinations.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

REGISTRAR.
